

GERTRUDE R. ADAMS
435 Palo Verde Dr.

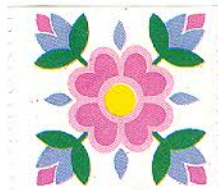

Born: August 24, 1913 Toronto, Ontario, Can Died: January 7, 2003

"Trudy" was a very active resident of Hawthorne and much beloved for her many loving deeds.

Daughters Sally and Jane and their husbands
attended the private interment of Trudy's ashes on Thursday, January 16, 2003, at 4:00 p.m.

The family members read scripture and offered prayer in memory of Trudy, whose cremains were placed very close to those of her husband Fred's ashes.

The Hawthorne Memorial Fund was represented by George Wolf.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not be in want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he restores my soul. He guides me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Success

“To laugh often and much:
to win the respect of intelligent people
and the affection of children;
to earn the appreciation of honest critics
and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty; to find the best in others;
to leave the world a bit better whether by a healthy child,
a garden patch, or a redeemed social condition;
to know even one life has breathed easier
because you have lived.
This is to have succeeded.”

Ralph Waldo Emerson

*Trudy's family requests that
